Driving Lofast - the gateway to the Lofoten islands

From Harstad we travel south through the historic and beautiful Tjeldsundet strait. On our way, we pass the old trading post Sandtorgholmen from the 15th century. North of Lødingen we head westwards for 18 km before we enter "Lofast"- the mainland connection to Lofoten. From here we drive towards Fiskebøl and Svolvær. The nature is dramatic and wild in one of Norway's most important fishing ports, Svolvær, and here we pay "Magic Ice» ice bar and gallery a visit.

Including lunch in Svolvær, and entrance to "Magic Ice Bar and Gallery". Return the same route after lunch
